ABOUT HARRY'S ON BUDERIM

The original building was constructed in 1880 by Harry Board, a carpenter and coffee grower. In 1901 he decided to open his home, then at 75 William Street, to visitors, so becoming the first guesthouse to operate in Buderim.

The Simpson family bought the property in the 1920's and called it home until the 1960's. A succession of families lived in the old house over the next thirty years, until tenants Eric and Lyn Moses finally brought it to the attention of the Maroochy Shire Council. The then owners, Brian and Victoria Kimbell, donated the house to the people of Maroochy Shire in 1990 and, in 1991, Harry's was relocated to the Buderim Forest. Renovation took place over the next few years, the Maroochy Shire Council returning it, as much as possible, to its original state.

Harry's Restaurant has been operating since 1994 and the wide verandas, once again, welcome diners, as they did in Harry Board's day. In 2018, Stuart and Lisa Bell became the new owners of Harry's, after relocating their family from Victoria to the Sunshine Coast and today the iconic house can boast a fine dining Queensland experience.

ABOUT THE CHEF

Stuart Bell has 30 years industry experience, having worked for Paul Bocuse, Philippe Mouchel, Jacques Reymond, The Windsor Hotel in Melbourne and Michelin Star Restaurants in Europe. Stuart is a two hatted chef with The Good Food Guide 2018.

Whilst in his last role as Head Chef at Ten Minutes By Tractor Restaurant & Winery on the Mornington Peninsula in Victoria, Stuart raised the profile of the restaurant by achieving Two Chefs Hats from The Age Good Food Guide which he retained for 6 years.

Stuart and his wife Lisa, decided to move to the Sunshine Coast in 2018 with their 3 daughters. Together, they took over the reins at the iconic restaurant “Harry’s on Buderim”, the old Queenslander poignantly reminding Stuart of previous restaurants where he had worked, also set in historic houses.

Stuart is determined to use as much local produce as possible, be it from local farmers or suppliers and with the abundance available on the Sunshine Coast, the choices are limitless. Stuart creates seasonal menus and monthly degustation events.

AMADIO WINES

Giovanni Amadio arrived in Australia in 1927 from Italy and in 1934 purchased the land that would become the family home. In 1936, Giovanni commercially registered his table wine, sourcing the grapes from leased vineyards. In 1985, Gaetano, Giovanni's son, planted his first vineyard in the Adelaide Hills.

Daniel Amadio, the current wine maker, is continuing the successful wine production, three generations in the making.

BROCKENCHACK WINES

After several years of visiting the Barossa Valley and falling in love with the region and its wine, long time Buderim residents Trevor and Marilyn Harch, purchased an established vineyard in the Eden Valley region in 2007. At that time, the vineyard was producing Riesling and Shiraz grapes. The vineyard is believed to have some of the oldest Riesling vines in Australia, having been planted in 1896 and the Shiraz in 1927.

The Vineyard has since grown and includes approximately 40 acres of vines, including Chardonnay, Pinot Gris, Cabernet Sauvignon and Pinot Noir.
